

FRAGRANCES

* Occurs naturally in essential oils

As Lush we like to fragrance our bodies in many ways; there are some fantastic perfumes in our Ballistics, Massage Bars and Shampoos! However, there are only two which have made it into bottles, with a range of matching scented products, Karma and Ginger. These are the ones which Mark likes the most. (Some of us would like Fever and Flying Fox fragrances too; to add your voice to the campaigns, visit the internet forum at www.lushforum.co.uk and join in.)

GINGER ATOMISER

Ginger fragrance has been with us since before Lush was a twinkle in its founders' eyes. It was one of our Cosmetics to Go perfumes from the far distant past. When we bought back the company and all our original products we had to recreate the perfume ourselves so we went back to the original inspiration. We pictured Ginger dancing with Fred, and blended the romance of the rose, sparkly juniperberry, sensual jasmine and warming ginger and made a fragrance which is exciting, enchanting and comforting all at once.
